Eight convicts were sent to the State during the late term of the Common Pleas Court.

The streets are very dusty, almost as much so as though they were laboring under the influences of a mid-summer drouth and tropical sun.

PROMOTIONS.-The following were made yesterday, in the 12th Cavalry: Co. C, James F. Parsons, 2d Lieut.; Co. E. John N. Slater, 2d Lieut.; Co. F, James T. Donahue, 2d Lieut.; Co. G, Alexander McDonald, 2d Lieut.; Co. K, Martin Rowan, 2d Lieut.

The Joint Resolution which proposes to repeal the Thirteenth Article of the Constitution of Indiana, made the special order of the business, to-day, at 2 o'clock P. M., in the House. An exhaustive discussion will doubtless attend the consideration of this most important question. The House will be crowded to its utmost capacity by visitors, because this is a matter of no ordinary consequence.

OUR CIRCUIT COURT .- Nothing was done a the term of the Marion Circuit Court, just concluded, beyond adjudicating the cases on the eriminal docket, and the hearing of divorce cases. Even the criminal docket was not finished, while the civil docket was not touched, save as respects the divorce cases. Nevertheless the term was a busy one, and much business was disposed of, arguing that crime is much on the increase, and that matrimony often proves infelicitious.

Insurance Company.

ASSETS OVER

THIS ENTERPRISING COMPANY, IN A LITTLE over six years, has issued over 13,000 Policies am paid near $200,000 in Losses. It is prompt in all its bu siness transactions, paying its losses as cheerfully as it receives the premiums on its policies, departing in no respect from the general principles upon which all the great Mutual Life Insurance of America have based ies; and, also, a less rate of mortality than is experienced in the East—two very important items to con-sider in the selection of a Life Insurance Company. Over two hundred of the Northwestern Policies are now held in Indianapolis. S. S. DAGGET, Pres't A. W. KELLOOO, Secretary. Principal Office, 416 Main street, Milwankee, Chicago office, 92 Dearborn street. Cincinnati Office, 80 West Third street.
